

Aime McKenna Berry - Actor

Amie graduated from NIDA in 2000 and spent a decade working as an actor in film, theatre, and TV. In 2002, she received the Jeffrey Joynton-Smith Memorial award for Lizzie in Burning (Griffin) and was nominated for a Sydney Theatre Award in for Dot in Sunday In the Park With George (Q Theatre) in 2007. Following her acting career, Amie focused on her cabaret persona, Ava Torch, performing live gigs with her band across the country.

Amie released an EP titled "Some Torch Songs" and a full-length studio album called "Love Blood Cum." Amie also produced cabaret and burlesque events, including Holly Follies, Winter Follies, and the Hillcrest Kabarett and Burlesque Festival.

In 2011, her track "Put Your Clothes On" was featured in the Myer Autumn/Winter campaign. Amie has worked for Griffin, Theatre of Image, Q Theatre, Bell Shakespeare and in a recent return to the dramatic stage, with Kate Gaul and Melita Rowston.
